No. 85 of 1912 Savanur 19/3/12

Returned with Compliments.

The allotment for 1911-12 is Rs. 550.
The cost of surgical stores for that year is Rupees 586. 15. 3 only.
Deduct the allotment for 1911-12 from it - 550 - - -
This excess amount of Rs 36 - 15 - 3 is probably due to the cost of surgical instruments purchased specially on remarks of the Civil Surgeon Dharwar at the time of his annual inspection.
The remaining items as detailed below are probably costs of medicines for 1911-12 ought to have been recovered in 1912-13 as usual but the Accountant General Bombay have sent the recovery orders for the amounts in the current financial year so the amounts exceeds the allotment. If the Diwan thinks it proper and if there is no provision for payment of the amount in question the matter may be represented to the Accountant General Bombay for favour of recovering the amount of the accompanying bill in the next financial year.
